Edwards Gets a Threatening Communication Through Mails.

EXTRA GUARDS PLACED
AT ROCKEFELLER PLACE

No Explanation of Additional Precautions Has Been Made by Police.

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Just as the September grand jury was today beginning a searching probe into the Wall Street explosion, it was learned that William I. Edwards, collector of internal revenue, received warning that an attempt would be made tomorrow to blow up the custom house.
The threat was written on a post card, which was sent through the mails.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 20.— Twelve extra guards, armed with small rifles, patrolled the roads surrounding Pocantico Hills, the estate of John D. Rockefeller, for several hours last night. These extra guards went off duty about 10:30 o'clock, but the regular guards, it was reported, maintained more than their usual caution in guarding the estate the remainder of the night. No explanation of the presence of the extra guards was made.

A GENERAL ROUND UP

round-up of anarchists in Chicago is under way by the police today. Every known extremist's lair in the city is anarchist squad and department of justice agents.

ANOTHER WARNING
WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—A warning that a bomb explosion similar to that in New York, would take place in Washington, Cleveland and Pittsburg "very soon" was received today by a local newspaper. The letter, which was turned over to the department justice, was signed "A. A. F." (American Anarchist Fighters) and was mailed in Washington.

FISCHER TO APPEAR BEFORE GRAND JURY

Insane Man Who "Tipped" New York Outrage, Brought Back From Canada.

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The Wall Street blast was still a mystery today after a few days' search by every agency of the police and the law.
The authorities, however, claimed to have new clues which they were developing, but it was admitted that no arrest seemed imminent.

The New York grand jury began taking testimony in what promised to become the most drastic investigation ever conducted in this city. Edward Fischer, who sent warning to at least two persons, and who was later arrested in Canada, as an insane man, was summoned to testify before the grand jury despite the fact that he is admittedly deficient mentally and irresponsible.

Fischer arrived here this morning in custody of two New York detectives.
With many churches under guard of armed men, a number of prominent clergymen preached sermons Sunday on the bomb explosion.

MALE QUARTETTE SINGS AT C. OF C.

CUSSED AT NEXT MEMBER-SHIP BANQUET.

At the second bi-monthly banquet meeting of the Albany Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night, a male quartette will furnish the entertainment feature for the evening, according to an announcement today.

Important matters to be discussed at this meeting will be the road bond issue election recently called by the Morgan County Board of Revenue, and the question of securing the location of the Baptist State Hospital.

Every member who has signed to attend these banquet meetings is urged to be present, as well as any other who desire to attend. Those who are not able to attend are requested to notify Secretary-Manager Mc-Daniel not later than 9:00 o'clock tomorrow morning. The meeting will start promptly at 7:00 o'clock and cuss plans for the organization of a league for the next season.

Tri-Cities, Athens and other commu-

First Poll Tax Is Paid in Morgan By 'Lady Voter'

The first Morgan County "lady voter" paid her poll tax today.

Tax Collector C. C. Robertson received in the morning mail a letter from N. S. Zeigler, formerly a well known resident of Albany, now residing at McComb, Miss., enclosing a check for his own and his wife's poll taxes for the year beginning October 1. Collector Robertson was requested to prepare the receipts and mail them after October 1.

The legislature, now in session in Montgomery, is expected to complete passage of laws this week fixing the qualifications of women, who desire to vote.

"I have not yet received the receipt forms for receiving polls from women, but I believe the legislature will permit the use of the receipts now issued to men, at least until new receipts have been printed," Mr. Robertson stated today.
"I shall hold Mrs. Zeigler's tax until I have received further instructions."

ITALIAN WORKERS COMPROMISE TO GET WAGE INCREASE

(International News Service)
ROME, Sept. 20.—Premier Giolitti, whose efforts to bring about an understanding between the iron and steel workers and factory owners to have been successful, believes that all danger of a political revolution and civil war in Italy is now passed.
According to the agreement the workers will get the following benefits: 1—Increase in wages; 2—Workmen, through representatives, to have certain authority in directing work in factories; 3—Annual vacations to be granted.

BURLESON TALKS OF LEGISLATURE

MORGAN COUNTY REPRESENTA-TIVE REVIEWS WORK OF THE STATE SOLONS.

Captain Richard Burleson, of Hartselle, who was elected from this county to the state legislature to succeed the late Porter M. Brindley, was recently in Albany, on his way home from the sittings of the state legislature. He said: "You know we recessed Friday until Tuesday so we have a short time off duty." In reply to the question as to whether Governor Kilby's message advocating the new legislation for regulating coal mines and coal production in the state, Captain Burleson said that he thought now that it would take a two-thirds vote of both the Senate and the House, to pass such legislation. When asked if he thought there was likelihood of the passage of the bill recommended by Messrs Denny, Mayfield and Henderson, the commissioners appointed by Governor Kilby, to investigate conditions in the Birmingham district coal fields, Captain Burleson said that he thought not.

"It looks as though the necessary two-thirds could not be secured. While the need is keenly felt, for some sort of protection for the public as to coal, it will be hard to get anything definite under the circumstances."

When asked as to why the constitutional convention measure failed, Captain Burleson said that as far as he could see no one made any effort for it. He said that he was not approached about it, and as no line of action was suggested to him he took it that there was no demand for the convention from Morgan county so he voted against it.

"We have passed the bill providing for the registration of the women of the state, and sent it on to the Senate for action," said Capt. Burleson.

"The bill provides for the appointment of three registrars for the county instead of one as in the past, and they are to assume their duties as soon as named by the Governor. Their terms of office expire November 2nd.
You understand our bill is only a temporary measure, to take care of the situation arising out of the ratification of the 19th amendment. Two company bills to this one were passed, one fixing the qualifications for women voters, which are much the same as those for men; and the other regulating the payment of poll tax."

CONTRAST BETWEEN SHEEP AND GOATS IS PICTURED IN SUNDAY SERMON BY VISITOR

Rev. Overton, of Waterloo, Delivers Able Addresses at Westside Church.

PLAIN ADVICE IS GIVEN TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE

"Too Many Girls Follow Anything in Pants," He Declares.

Rev. W. A. Overton, of Waterloo, Ala., who formerly held a series of evangelistic meetings at the Westside Presbyterian church, preached yesterday morning and last night at that church. The venerable preacher took as his subject last night, "The Biggest Fool in Albany" and used as his text: "The fool hath said in his heart there is no God." The speaker declared that those were either fools or cowards who did not accept Christ.
He quoted Aristotle, credited with being a wiser philosopher than either Plato or Socrates, as saying: "Religion to the young is a necessity; to the old a comfort; to the rich an honor; to the fortunate an ornament; to the weak a support; to the ennobles the slave and exalts nobility."

In his sermon of yesterday morning Rev. Overton uttered some wholesome truths in a very plain manner. The sermon was largely a statement of the contrast between believers and those who content themselves with mere worldly ways and amusements.
Believers were likened unto "sheep" and unbelievers likened unto the goats that in the scripture were directed to stand on the "left side."

"The Bible has a great deal to say about sheep and goats" began the speaker, after quoting his text beginning with the 23rd Psalm. "That said about the sheep is favorable; while that about goats is very unfavorable."

"The sheep are obedient, humble, affectionate and gentle. As a boy, whenever father ordered that a mutton should be slain, it was my job to hold while father delivered the fatal blow. If the sheep had resisted or cried out, it would possibly have aroused my combative nature, and I could have stood it better. As it was I kept my face turned from the silent victim, and ran away to keep from seeing it die."

"Now, whenever we had to kill a goat, old Bill made a great outcry and struggle. When he saw danger ahead, he wanted everybody to know it. So it is with a sinner, they make a great outcry in the face of death."

ALBANY BOOSTERS VISIT HODGES STORE AND DANVILLE WED.

The Albany Boosters will go to Hodges Store on Wednesday morning and will make a return visit to Danville Wednesday afternoon, according to an announcement of the Chamber of Commerce today. It will be remembered that on the first day of the Boosters tour, Hodges Store was not visited as planned, on account of the Boosters being delayed near Eva, and at Danville where a large crowd turned out to greet the Boosters, an invitation was extended to them to make a return trip, at which time the people of Danville promised to give a barbecue in honor of the boosters.

All merchants and business men were requested to line up on Second Avenue Wednesday promptly at 8:30 o'clock. The boosters will go from here direct to Hodges Store, where they will stay until 12:00 o'clock, then will go to Danville where they will spend the entire afternoon and enjoy the barbecue. The booster band will

MOTOR DELIVERY OF PARCEL POST NOW AUTHORIZED

A motorcycle, with commercial side car attachment, has been authorized by the Postoffice Department for use in delivering parcel post mail from the Albany postoffice, according to Postmaster Alexander. The vehicle has already been bought by the government and will be received within the next few weeks.

The growth of the parcel post feature of the local postoffice within the last few years is said by postoffice officials to be phenomenal. The parcels were formerly delivered by foot carriers; then bicycles were used and now a motorcycle is necessary.

This increase in parcel post is said to be largely due to increased use of the parcel post by local business houses which now receive many more parcels by mail than formerly.

Some Boxes Show Heavy Vote, Others Are Extremely Light.

WILL BE BRISK WHEN
THE SHOPS QUIT WORK

Majority of L. & N. Employees
Had Not Voted Up
to Noon.

With a heavy vote being polled in Decatur and a heavy vote in Albany indicated, the citizens of the Twin Cities today were casting their ballots for the candidates of their choice in the bi-annual municipal election.

At noon 171 votes had been cast at the Decatur city hall, where all of the ballots are cast in municipal contests.
At the Albany city hall 135 votes had been cast at noon, indicating a heavy vote at that box.

Reports from the other three boxes in Albany showed totals below the average. In the first ward only 69 ballots had been cast at noon; in the second ward 130; in the third ward only 23.

In the last three named wards, however, balloting will be brisk this afternoon. The majority of employes of the Louisville and Nashville shops will not vote until this afternoon, after the day shift is released from duty.
The second ward polls the largest vote in Albany, if the entire number of eligibles vote. Several hundred ballots are expected to be cast there.
The vote at the Albany city hall box was heavy and a record-breaking poll at that box was expected.
The vote in Decatur also indicated a total of more than 300 ballots.

PRESIDENT JULIAN AFTER SPACE GRAFTERS

Frank Julian, president of the Alabama Press association, is leading a campaign against space grafters. A page of "free plate" sent out by a leading railway has especially aroused his ire, as the common carrier in question is one that does not value publicity to the extent of paying for it.

In a communication to "fellow members of the Alabama Press Association," Mr. Julian very pertinently says:

Please bear in mind that plate matter is never donated to propagandists by the plate makers; the editors of the matter going into plate do not give their services; the mimeograph machines and paper upon which this stuff is printed are not donated to the corporations seeking space.

Publishers of newspapers are the only people who are asked to bear the expense of propaganda.

How long are you going to stand for it? Is your business any less worthy to receive a reasonable compensation than other business institutions?

Do not accept free stuff from any individual, firm or corporation which seeks to profit thereby.

The average newspaper, accustomed in its olden days to be exceedingly generous with its space and also well versed in the art of staving off its obligations, is being forced to learn something of business methods.

The high cost of print paper and of newspaper production has in a way been a blessing in disguise, as it has necessitated the abandonment of slipshod methods in the business offices of newspapers.

Many publishers have at last come to realize that there is no reason why they should give away space to propagandists.

From this time forth it is inevitable that the space grafter will be taboo and that publicity, other than news matter, shall be paid for if obtained.

The old rag of branding pure advertising with a "for the public good" stamp has served its day. By charging for their wares the publishers may some day attain a financial station that will enable them to be real philanthropists.

They can never do this by being the "easy marks" of nervy exploiters.

ANOTHER NATION EMBARKS ON SEA OF ANARCHY

Just what has happened in Italy cannot be entirely understood from the outside, if, indeed, it is understood in that country, but from all accounts the modern Romans have decided to follow the example of unhappy Russia.

Since the function of government is to protect property as well as life, the present uprising in Italy ending in the forcible seizure of factories without successful protest against it on the part of the Italian authorities, has demonstrated beyond question that the Italians have no government worthy of the name.

The law in Italy, as well as everywhere else, holds it as a crime for one individual to take another's property, whether the particular property be money values in the shape of actual cash or factories. In Italy it was factories and farms that were seized; and in some instances experts are said to have been killed by the workers taking the factories and compelled to direct their operation.

The delays of the law certainly are long in Italy to allow such a violation of individual rights and freedom. Unless the recent protests of the premier of that country are more effective than they are expected to be, no conclusion remains except that Italy has decided to put forth upon a sea of anarchy similar to the one Russia is now upon.

By all the economic forecasts, the most poverty stricken nations are the ones that go in for Bolshevism. Karl Marx, the founder of extreme socialism, is quoted as saying that his doctrines would not win in nations where wealth was general and widely distributed. As the Russian had practically nothing, he readily fell for Bolshevism. As the Italians are in desperate straits financially, they are ripe for industrial and financial chaos. In Spain the savings per individual are very low, hence Bolshevism is flourishing. Largely coups, which was planned and financed in Russia. The thrifty Hollanders have proven themselves superior to the low grade of financial morality as taught by the Bolsheviks. Although the Germans are war torn, of low morale and full of revolutionary movements largely from the fact that out of her nearly seventy millions, twenty-five million are small capitalists or depositors in banks, Bolshevism has made little headway in the Fatherland.

Until it can be proven that it is absolutely wrong for capital to be allowed to work for its owners, those who have laid by small or large amounts for present and future use, will never submit to the plans of seizure and confiscation as advocated and carried out by the radicals in Italy.

Gladstone used to tell his audiences that the Irish question would never be settled until the Emerald Isle was towed far out into the Atlantic. William seems to have been right about it.

The biggest part of the freedom others would give us, is that we do anything they would have us do and do it quickly.

All those who, like Andrew Carnegie, have an ambition to die poor, are doubtless welcoming the profiteer as a blessing in disguise.

All of us have our little keys with which to open the doors of fortune. But the trouble is, so few of them will fit the golden lock.

Contrast Between Sheep and Goats

I was recently called to witness such a death; and I declared that some of the man's cries of repentance ought to have been going on all along—not just at the last minute.

Differ in Appearance

The speaker dwelt at length on the difference in appearance of goats and sheep describing how wild looking, impudent and insolent "old Bill" appeared at all times.

"And a sheep is careful what and where he eats," said the preacher. "They are the cleanest animal I know of. When I was a boy unless the trough was perfectly clean the sheep would not eat out of it."

"Anything suited old Bill. He would chew the dirtiest dish rag that ever was, drink swill out of any old soiled bucket, or eat an old newspaper with apparently as much relish as a sheep would the daintiest grass."

"The goats of this world will feed on the most corrupt things. They do not care what it is; if they happen to want any thing, it makes no difference how corrupt it is, they will go after it by the most corrupt means. A sheep is not that way. And a sheep will stay where you put him. But if you want to get a goat in a pasture, the way to get him there is to put him outside and he will jump in. A goat cares not what company he keeps. Once a goat followed me to the sheep pasture, but I would not let him in. When I put the bars up against him, old Bill just went off with a hoot and stayed all day."

"Just so a goat is where he can annoy and aggravate he is happy. They are regular skilljoys; they wish to supplant a smile with a frown at all times."

Plain Advice

"Our young people seem to lack as much discrimination as a goat as to the company they keep. It looks like the girls will follow any young fellow who wears pants or a pair of overalls. When I said this down at Waterloo, some said 'why Brother Overton, you are mighty plain.' 'Yes,' I said 'I know it; I mean to be plain. I want to be understood. I seem to have been made with the inside out; but it is all for a purpose. I want you to be careful whom you follow. You know the Master says, speaking of the sheep 'A stranger, will they not follow.' I want you to stay out of the company of wine bibbers and gluttons."

The speaker recited a number of experiments as conducted by Dwight L. Moody, to prove that sheep are more wise than given credit for. All the experiments proved that no one but the true shepherd of his own sheep could lead them. The speaker said that God wished to lead His people out into large opportunities. He said that as the sheep-dogs had to "leg" the sheep as they went on to the green pasture, to prevent them from cropping the thin grass and the dead grass by the wayside; so God had seemingly to punish us along life's highway, or else we would be satisfied with the destructive activities of life, and loiter about life's pitfalls until we fell into the gulf of the lost.

"We are too apt to stop along the way, so as to make a little money any way we can, rather than move along the highway to the Promised Land."

"Let us go on," encouraged the preacher, "and grow and develop, and after a while drink of the water of life in the land of our God."

In concluding the speaker said that once a flock of sheep stood hesitating on the brink of a stream, fearful of taking the water, until a little lamb was taken up by the shepherd and placed in the pasture beyond the stream. Then the mother ewe plunged in and soon all the other sheep followed to the pasture side of the stream. It was argued that they loved one who had passed over, should serve as a strong incentive to a better life.

IT WAS THE AUTUMN OF THE YEAR

It was the autumn of the year, The time to labouring peasants dear; Week after week, from noon to noon, September shone as bright as June; Still, never hand a sickle held; The crops were garnered in the field, Trod out, and ground by horses feet, While every ear was milky sweet; And kneaded on the threshing floor With mire of tears and human gore. Some said they thought that heaven's pure rain

Would hardly bless those fields again. Not so the all-benignant skies Rebuked that fear of famished eyes— July passed on with showers and dew, And August glowed in showerless blue;

No harvest time could be more fair, Had harvest fruits but ripened there. Strange proofs I've seen, how hearts could hide

Their secret with a life-long pride, And then reveal it as they died. Strange courage, and strange weakness too.

In that last hour when most are true, And timid natures strangely nerved, To deeds from which the desperate swerved!

These I may tell, but leave them now. Go with me where my thoughts would go;

Now all today, and all last night, I've had one scene before my sight— Wood-shadowed dales; a harvest moon, Unclouded in its glorious noon; A solemn landscape, wide and still, A red fire on a distant hill;

A line of fire, and deep below, Another dusker, drearier glow, Charred-beams, and lime, and blackened stones.

Self-piled in cairns o'er burning bones; And lurid flames that licked the wood. Then quenched their glare in pools of blood.

—Emily Bronte

"The Devil," is Subject Tonight

"Signs of the End," from Evangelist Denslow's viewpoint constitutes an all important subject. Last night the capacity of the "Big Tent" in Decatur was given a good test, and the interest displayed gave evidence of an interesting subject.

From Luke 21:25 Rev. Denslow pointed out that there should be signs in the sun, moon, stars and then on the earth. Going back into history he told us of the dark day and night of May 19, 1780, and of the falling stars of Nov. 13, 1833, and then went on to show that the distress of nations in our day, earthquakes, tidal waves—and from Dan 12:4—the increase of knowledge during the last century were positive evidences of fulfilled prophecy.

Our duties and the great privileges of living in this time of the world were then brought out, as found in Matt 24:44.

Rev. Denslow will speak each night this week. Subject for tonight is what the Bible says about "The Devil," who made him? Why God has allowed him to live this long and when will he be destroyed?

Certain-teed Roofing Costs Less to Lay

You will appreciate the low cost and convenience of laying Certain-teed Roofing. Skilled labor is not required to lay it properly. You save much of the expense of hiring trained workmen and avoid delays because of a scarcity of such men.

But this is only one of the Certain-teed economies. It also costs less to buy and less to maintain than any other type of good roofing. In addition, Certain-teed roofing is weather-proof, fire-retarding and spark-proof. It is guaranteed for five, ten or fifteen years, according to weight. Experience proves that it usually outlasts its guarantee by years of satisfactory service.

See your dealer about Certain-teed Roofing. If he can't fill your entire order from stock, he can get what you want quickly from a nearby Certain-teed distributing center.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20. — The Kenyon slush fund investigating committee will resume its hearings at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning in Washington, republican leaders announced today.

To the Cotton Raiser

GINNING time is here and naturally you want to gin your cotton where you can get the best results. I can give you a better turn out and make you a better sample than you can get at any other gin. I have a cleaner that will clean your cotton better than any other gin that you can find and that is what you want as the differences are so great this season that it will pay you to gin where your cotton will be cleaned thoroughly so that it will enable you to get the highest grade possible.

Bring your cotton to Albany where the competition is keen and you will get the benefit of it.

I will pay you the highest market price for your cotton and seed, and, if the market does not justify you selling, I will have a Bonded Warehouse where you can store your cotton and get your receipt and use in bank as cash. Patronize the man that has helped to make the best cotton market in this section. Give me a chance to prove my statements and you will make money.

Another Feature

I have hired Mr. Will Gibson of Lawrence county as my ginner this season, who has had the experience and knows his business.

I am giving you the best that money could get. Come to see me and see for yourself.

Good Printing

THE kind of printing that pays dividends is the kind you should have. Pale, muddy, poorly arranged printed matter is worse than none. The quality of your business is often judged by the quality of your stationery — inferior printing gives an impression of cheapness that is hard to overcome, while good printing carries with it a desirable suggestion of quality.

We produce only Quality Printing. Whether you want an inexpensive handbill or a letterhead in colors, if you order it from us you will be sure of getting good work. We have the equipment and the "know how" that enables us to get out really good printing — printing that impresses people with the good taste of its users. That is the only kind of printing that

MEMORY BLANK WHOLE YEAR, WAR HERO FINALLY RECOVERS AND RETURNS HOME TO PARENTS

(International News Service) KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 17. — At 7 p. m. on August 11, 1919, Lewis Foley locked the door of his father's grocery store at Fortieth and Holmes streets and started home. Then all went blank.

Foley's name appeared on the list of "missing" at police headquarters and for more than a year his disappearance was a deep and apparently impenetrable mystery to his relatives and friends. Then one day recently Foley walked in on his mother at her home, No. 17 East Forty-first street, and another was added to these many strange cases of temporary loss of memory due to accidents incident to the war.

Foley, a wide-awake youth of twenty-four, enlisted in the First American Cavalry at Kansas City on May 11, 1917, going to Jefferson Barracks and thence to Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., where the First Cavalry was stationed.

At Fort Russell Foley was kicked on the forehead by an army mule. After a month in the hospital he was given an honorable discharge for disability.

Returning to his home in Kansas City, after being discharged from the hospital, Foley decided that if he could not do his bit with the army of his country he would look elsewhere, and on August 17 enlisted in the English army, being assigned to the Third Royal Black Watch, a Scottish infantry regiment.

From Kansas City Foley was sent to Nova Scotia, and from there went overseas September 20, 1917. Arriving in England, Foley was stationed at Curragh Camp, Ireland, twenty-six miles from Dublin, where he remained throughout the war.

Discharged from the British army in February, 1919, Foley returned to his mother's home, arriving March 17. Immediately upon his return home he went to work for his father, who then operated a grocery store at Fourteenth and Holmes streets.

He disappeared August 11, 1919, and on August 8, just three days less than a year later, he awoke in the St. Clair Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, after being picked up in a dazed condition on the street.

Memory returned quickly and he asked for his mother, Mrs. Ada Foley, giving her Kansas City address, and on August 9 the mother received a telegram notifying her that the son she had mourned as dead was alive. A quick recovery and Foley returned home, his memory fully restored, but with the events of the year a hozy dream.

Previous to his awakening in Cleveland and Foley remembers being in Youngstown, Ohio, but no other city. In Cleveland he went under the name of Wilbur Crane.

A curious feature of Foley's case is that while previous to the blank period he took no interest in electrical equipment, during the year his memory faded he took up storage battery work, became an expert and was drawing a substantial salary when the mists cleared in the Cleveland hospital.

ORANGE-COLORED CAT LEADS TO RECOVERY OF STOLEN DYES

Department of Justice Agents, Tracing Big Theft, Follow Bright-Colored Tabby and 17 Arrests Are the Result.

(International News Service.) NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Because a cat, with an orange-colored tail and an orange spot on her body crossed the path of keen-eyed agents of the Department of Justice in River street, Hoboken, seventeen men have been arrested and stolen dyes valued at $300,000 have been recovered.

The most prominent of the men arrested are Jacob Widder, treasurer of the Widder Dye & Chemical Co., of Brooklyn, Adolph Widder, assistant treasurer of the company; Samuel Weiss, a salesman, and George Davis, a chemist, both employed by the Widder company.

Jacob Widder and Davis were held in bail of $5,000 each, charged with conspiracy to receive stolen goods, by a United States Commissioner in Brooklyn.

On the morning of July 8 a motor truck with seven men backed up to the warehouse of the Textile Alliance, Inc., at Jackson and Fifth streets, Hoboken. The men held up the watchman with revolvers and bound him to a truck while they loaded about 6,000 pounds of German dyes, held in the warehouse of the State department as part of the German indemnity, onto their own truck and carried it away.

Several days later a Department of Justice agent noticed a cat in River street, Hoboken, near the army piers, with an orange-colored tail and an orange spot on its body. He took the cat to a chemist, who analyzed hairs cut from the orange spots and declared them to be dyed with German dye. The agent then released the cat which went directly into a house in River street. This house was "covered" and found to contain a number of men.

Special Agent Frank Stone, chief of the Department of Justice in New Jersey, with Agent Emmet Drew, saw a truck pass them in Paterson a few days ago, followed by an automobile, which contained one of the men, who live in the River street house in Hoboken. They stopped the truck and found that it contained 3,000 pounds of German dyes.

They arrested three men in the touring car, and as a result of these arrests they went to Brooklyn, where they said they found 3,000 pounds more of German dyes in a warehouse.

Adolph Widder and Weiss were arrested later in Chicago.

The men arrested in Paterson were Christian Miller, Richard O'Connor and Joseph Hoskins, the last named, of Hoboken, and known as "Scranton Joe." Ten other men have been picked up at various times. Stone said the goods were taken apparently from Hoboken to Marlborough, N. Y., and kept on a farm of a man who lives in West Hoboken.

Shortly afterward Stone said, part of the dyes were shipped to Brooklyn. The remainder was taken on a truck to Paterson, where they were seized by the Department of Justice agents. Stone said he thought that some of the dyes were taken to Hoboken to be used as samples for disposing of the dyes, and that some of them dropped to the floor, where the cat lay in them.

The Strong Withstand the Heat of Summer Better Than the Weak

Old people who are feeble and younger people who are weak, will be strengthened and enabled to go through the depressing heat of summer by taking GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. It strengthens and builds up the system by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. You can soon feel its strengthening, invigorating effect. 60c.

Rheumatism Comes

From Tiny Pain Germs

First of all, get it firmly fixed in your mind that all the liniments in the world have no effect whatever on Rheumatism.

A very common form of Rheumatism is caused by millions of tiny disease germs which infest the blood. The one and only sensible treatment, therefore, is one which cleanses the blood of these germs, and routes them entirely out of the circulation.

This is why S.S.S., the greatest known blood purifier is so successful in the treatment of Rheumatism. It is a powerful cleanser of the blood, and will remove the disease germs that cause your Rheumatism, affording relief that is genuine. S.S.S. is sold by all druggists. Free literature and medical advice can be had by writing to Chief Medical Adviser, 154 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Repair The Wear

Hard Work Often Breaks Down a Person's Health and Creates a Need for Ziron Iron Tonic.

MEN and women who do hard labor, such as building, farming or housekeeping, and those who do exhaustive brain work of various kinds, often feel the need of something to help renew flagged forces and tone up the system.

To help repair the wear caused by overwork, to gain renewed strength and energy, many have obtained good results from taking Ziron Iron Tonic. Ziron is a perfected preparation of pure medicinal iron salts, combined with other valuable strength-giving tonic ingredients, which are recommended by leading physicians. Mr. H. B. Coover, of McEwen, Tenn., writes: "I had been working very hard, and was getting weak and run-down from hard work. When I commenced taking Ziron, in a few days I felt stronger, and now I have taken two bottles I feel as strong as ever, although I have kept at work all the time."

You cannot lose anything by giving Ziron a trial, but very likely will gain much. Your druggist will sell you the first bottle on a money-back guarantee.

ATHENS NEWS

Mrs. Mattie Martin, who is in Nashville at an infirmary, has passed through a serious operation, which she stood splendidly, and hopes to be able to return home in a short time.

Carlisle Gusham was laid to rest by the American Legion at Athens yesterday, services being held at the Presbyterian church. His remains were brought from Europe. Interment had been in German soil and his loved ones desired that his final resting place be at his boyhood home. The family has the sympathy of a large circle of friends. He was accidentally killed almost 2 years ago while with the army of occupation.

Mrs. Frost and her son, Wright, Jr. will leave for Nashville, where Wright, Jr. will enter Vanderbilt.

Dan Rosenau has returned, after a visit to relatives in Tuscaloosa.

The college opened Wednesday with the very brightest of prospects and a fine array of students.

The Athens Public School opened with 330 pupils, the largest enrollment ever known. The new principal is popular and is planning some new things for the school. Mr. Merrill and his wife are now at Mrs. Wright Frost's home.

Miss Dickerson opened her school Wednesday with 80 pupils. Athens is truly a school town.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment is a Brisk Purgative With Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablet called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Druggists sell Calotabs only in original sealed packages, twice thirty-five cents. Your money
